

UnitingWorld Seeks Diverse New Board Members

16 December 2020

UnitingWorld is the international aid and partnerships agency of the Uniting Church in Australia, driving missional collaboration with the global church for a world free from poverty and injustice.

The Board of UnitingWorld has responsibility for the governance of UnitingWorld.

UnitingWorld works in partnerships with communities and churches to foster equality and address issues of injustice. In the last year alone, we have impacted the lives of over 400,00 people.

The Board is skill-based and in this period of change and growth, we are seeking suitably qualified individuals with skills in international or community development, professional fundraising, law, finance, or project management.

We are seeking members with experience in working cross- and inter-culturally to enable the Board to have a broad perspective on the issues it addresses; to reflect the communities we partner with; and contribute to our dynamic and professional board.

We are committed to high standards of governance, including ongoing training and professional development. The Board operates under a Board Member Covenant with a commitment to partnership, mutual respect, inclusion, integrity, sustainability, innovation, and the fullness of life.

UnitingWorld is committed to building a diverse board and fosters an inclusive culture. All qualified applicants will receive consideration based on merit, competence, performance, and business needs.

We are seeking up to FOUR individuals who:

- a) Are members of the Uniting Church in Australia;
- b) Bring life experience and skills that enrich our working in partnerships in Australia and overseas. Therefore, we encourage applicants who identify as indigenous, culturally and linguistically diverse, with a disability or socially disadvantaged to apply
- c) Have demonstrated skills and impact in one or more of the following areas international or community development; fundraising; finance; law; or project management.
- d) Have experience in community leadership, board or committee governance
- e) The ability to contribute to UnitingWorld's growth through leveraging their existing networks and helping to develop new ones

Please contact Dr Andrew Glenn, Chairperson of the UnitingWorld Board to express your interest.
andrewroderickglenn@gmail.com